

Boy Lost.

THE Subscriber's son, Cornelius Sinclair, a co. loured Boy, about 11 years old, left his friends yesterday, and as he had no cause, and never before absented himself, it is feared he has been seduced away, by some evil minded person; he is a very dark mulatto, pretty stout built, thin long fingers, his eyes weak, left eye smaller than the right. Any person hearing of him, will confer a favour on his afflicted parents, by giving information to Wiggin & Whitney, No. 19 South Front-street, and all persons are forbid harbouring him under penalty of the law. JOSEPH SINCLAIR, aug 13—31 Crab-street, below the Old Theatre.
